President's Report

It was with great sadness that the Club heard of the death of Yianni Koundouris last Saturday, 23 March.

Yianni was one of Sydney Olympic's most loved people who devoted much of his life to the Club both as a gear steward and as a supporter.

The players greatly appreciated his commitment to them which was reflected in his regular trips to the airport to greet the team back from an interstate away game whether the team won, lost or drew.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I extend my sincere condolences to Yianni's wife and family and trust that Yianni will long be remembered as a great man who loved the Club as much as the Club loved him.

Today I welcome Wollongong City to Leichhardt Oval.

— JIM KELAITIS
President

Favourite food:	My wife's cooking
Favourite drink:	Water
Favourite film:	The Godfather
Favourite music:	Classic Hits
My car:	Toyota Corolla
My hero:	Michael Jordan
Tip for young players:	Concentrate on what you are doing and never stop learning.

George Sorras knows Sydney Olympic very well and so he should — George has been playing with the Club since he was twelve years old. During that period he has played in a number of positions and has won selection for the Young Socceroos playing in the World Cup in Portugal in 1991.

Despite his heavy involvement on the playing field George still finds time to be the Development Officer for Soccer New South Wales and to run his own indoor sports centre at Marrickville.

George is one of the most popular players Olympic has ever produced. This year he says it is great to see so many Olympic supporters with a smile on their face. George has played his part in generating that winning feeling.

UTS SOCCER CLUB

The University of Technology, Sydney (UTS) Soccer Club has one hundred active members, both male and female, who take part in various competitions from district football in the winter to our own club run summer 6-a-side competition, and indoor soccer. The club is made up of both students and non students (and the odd never been or never want to be a student). We are basically a social club, but we maintain a good deal of competitiveness within all grades of competition.

Our mens teams play our football in the Ku-Ringai District on Sydney's North Shore, while our womens teams compete in the Gladesville-Hornsby District. We cater for all levels of skill from "Maradona's and Pele's to wanna-be's".

We have always had a great deal of rivalry between our highest graded mens teams, and on Sunday 31 March, the two teams will be able to show just who is the more superior. Don't be mistaken although this is a game against clubmates it will have a great deal of feeling.

The teams are:

UTS Old Boys

(teal, black & white)

- 1 Pat Last
- 2 Henri Kalisse
- 3 Glen Harris
- 4 Kevin Bush
- 5 Bil McLean

Whistle Stop

by PHIL HAFEY

The requirement that injured players be treated off the field of play has resulted in fewer stoppages and the elimination of the tactic where players required treatment simply to slow the game down. In general, the change in policy has been readily accepted and understood. The procedure for the treatment of an injured player is very clear. If the trainer is called on, the player must leave the field of play for treatment (unless he is the goalkeeper).

Spectators may have wondered why, in a few instances, players walk to the sideline with the trainer and then stand around waiting to be called back onto the field by the referee. The referee's actions are the result of some problems that arose last season where trainers actually treated the player on the field under the guise of 'assessing the injury'. Having been treated/assessed, the player went to the sideline and then immediately returned to the field. This action is contrary to the spirit of the law. Had the player been moved to the sideline for treatment as required by the laws, his team would have played a man short for the length of time of the treatment. By being treated on the field under the guise of 'assessment,' the team gained an unfair advantage. It was therefore decided that players who are treated on the field shall remain off the field for the length of time of the treatment.

At the commencement of this season the policy, and the reasons behind it, were outlined to all clubs - Ericsson Cup, Les Cup, Super League, Federation and Youth League - and, as a result, there have been very few problems this season. One of the main reasons for the success of the policy has been the willingness of players, trainers and club officials to follow the spirit of the law as well as the referees preparedness to insist that the procedures outlined are adhered to.

It must also be remembered that in all cases, the safety of the player is paramount and where a injury is serious, the player is not moved to the sideline until it is safe to do so.

This weekend I will be conducting a Level One Inspectors Course and pre-season seminar in Albury for participants from Northern Victoria and Southern New South Wales. There is no doubt that referees from the country often miss out on information that is readily available in metropolitan areas and the Albury course is one of many steps designed to ensure that all referees throughout Australia receive the best possible coaching.

"Straight Shooting"

with ANDY PASCHALIDIS (Alias Uncle Stavros)

Socceroo goalie, Mark Bosnich, is chasing the elusive Cup double in what many regard as the best competition in the world — the English Premier League.

Bosnich had another strong game as Aston Villa easily brushed aside Leeds United 3-0 in the League Cup final at Wembley early last Monday morning.

Bosnich is in the second year of a massive five-year deal with Villa. What a turnaround it has been for the 24-year-old former Sydney United keeper.

Last season Villa escaped relegation by just the one point. There is a big reason for that the Villa side had nine players over the age of 30 in the first team squad.

In Monday's winning side against Leeds there was only three survivors from the side that so easily won the League Cup against Manchester United — Paul McGrath, Andy Townsend and Bosnich.

"Mark is playing some of the best football of his life," Mark Bosnich senior told me this week: "The team has played well in both Cups and also the Premier League after a somewhat shattering run last season.

"Mark called me straight after the win and said it was sweeter than beating United two years ago. I'm just so proud of what he has done."

This Sunday night, Bosnich is at it again with Villa meeting Liverpool in the semi-finals of the FA Cup (Both Cup semis will be shown exclusively live on Fox Sports.)

Bosnich is a brilliant keeper although his personal life has been the subject of much media speculation in recent years. Two years ago he was voted the Premier League's best keeper by his fellow custodians.

He has experienced many trials and tribulations in his somewhat short but drama packed career. Bosnich was the youngest player to go to the World Under 16 championships in Canada before starring for Australia in the World Youth Cup of 1991.

A year later he represented the Olyroos at the Olympics in Barcelona and upon his return to London he was held up in customs and not allowed into the country because of visa problems.

Former Liverpool boss Kenny Dalglish wanted him at the tender age of 15 before Manchester United pounced. The rest, as they say, is history.

"I've got a feeling he'll play in the Premier League for another 10 years and then return home," Mark Bosnich senior added. "Mark wants to put something back in the game here. He misses his family, the weather and the relaxed lifestyle of Australia."

Bosnich devoted his latest Cup medal to his father after giving the first one to his mother. He has vowed come FA Cup final day he will present his sister with his first FA Cup medal.

First though, Villa must overcome Liverpool and the memories of the recent 3-0 loss to the Reds must still be fresh in his memory.

There's been great news for Bosnich's Socceroo team-mate Graham Arnold, who scored four goals as Breda won 4-0 at Utrecht last weekend. Arnold has now scored 14 goals this season.

Arnold is having his best season abroad since leaving Sydney United after the 1988 Olympics.

Not so much joy for Ned Zelic though, who injured ankle ligaments while playing for Eintracht Frankfurt. The former Sydney Olympic star missed the Scotland-Australia game and is expected to be out for a few weeks.

Zelic has been a first team regular since moving from QPR last December.

Injuries seem to be affecting many overseas-based players at the moment with Craig Moore and Stan Lazaridis also on the sidelines.

GAME vs W'GONG 31/3/96

Welcome to tonight's game folks!

With yet another month over, I can galdly report that the UTS Olympic Development Team have continued their tireless work in promoting the Club and soccer within the community at large.

Highlights of the March Development Program included:

- * School visits to Canterbury and Tempe Public Schools.
- * Canterbury District Soccer Club visit.
- * And being a part of a special promotion staged by one of the club's sponsors – namely "Mobile Express".

Steve Darby (microphone) and Kris Trajanovski on stage, as fellow players Ivan Zelic and George Vallas look on at a recent Westfields promotion visit.

And already, next month is shaping up as an exciting one – with a possible highlight being the soccer coaching clinic being arranged on behalf of the Northbridge Soccer Club (April 9-12, 1996).

If your school or sporting organisation too is interested in a UTS Olympic Development Visit, simply complete the accompanying coupon.
